FABI Awards Celebrate the Next Big Thing in Flavor, Creativity, and Profit Potential
Call for Submissions for 2020 Food and Beverage Awards (FABI) Opens

CHICAGO, IL (November 13, 2019) – Applications are now being accepted for the 2020 FABI Awards, the National Restaurant Association Show’s annual celebration of the year’s tastiest, most creative, and most marketable food and beverage products. These are the menu items or ingredients that discerning diners seek for trendy tastes, sustainable manufacturing, nutritional awareness, and more.

“PepsiCo Foodservice has been honored with a few National Restaurant Association Show FABI Awards over the years,” commented Sumi DeBenedittis, Director, Foodservice Development & Communications. “The most important benefit is having operators and the industry validate that our products are on-trend and can offer potential growth opportunities for our customers while delighting their consumers. In addition, it has given our company positive visibility and has been an immense source of company pride for our associates!”

In the 10th year of FABI Awards, 2020 Award recipients will enjoy enhanced opportunities to reach attendees in addition to increased awareness and booth traffic. Recognized products are featured during the FABI Awardee Tasting events, which give attendees the opportunity to sample many of the products in one place. FABI Awarded products will also be identified throughout the Show floor with prominent signage, further driving attendees to visit their booths.

Additional FABI Award benefits include:

- Prominent placement in pre-Show promotional efforts
- FABI Award logo and custom signage for use in marketing efforts for the life of the product
• High-profile exposure both on and off the Show floor
• Increased media coverage and visibility with influential customers
• Feedback from an esteemed panel of judges
• Recognition as an industry leader

An independent panel of industry operators and experts evaluate FABI Award submissions for their exciting new tastes, uniqueness in the market, appeal to the operator community, creative approach to operator challenges, or introduction of new opportunities and profit potential. The 2020 FABI Award submissions will be judged by:

• Pat Cobe, Senior Editor, Restaurant Business & Foodservice Director
• Timothy J. Dietzler, Director of Dining Services, Villanova University
