BOOTH 1685

The Gluten-Free, Vegan, And Allergy-Friendly Food Company Brings to Market New Innovation Just in Time for S'mores Season

New York, NY, May 1, 2023 – Partake Foods, the gluten-free, vegan, and allergy-friendly company, has today announced the launch of its new Classic Graham Crackers, perfect for s'mores season and as a year-round snack, available in June at Target stores nationwide.

Partake Classic Graham Crackers have a delightful hint of cinnamon, and are the perfect size and shape for s'mores, on-the-go, and lunchboxes. They're safe for school and summer camps, and make a perfect pie crust! Just like all Partake products, the Classic Graham Crackers are vegan, gluten-free, non-GMO, and free of the top 9 allergens.

“Graham Crackers are a summer staple, and we are so excited to offer our customers this new innovation from Partake,” said Denise Woodard, Founder & CEO of Partake Foods. “As we expand our offerings of delicious, allergy-friendly foods, we are thrilled to continue our mission to make snack time more inclusive for those with and without food restrictions.”

Each 6.75 oz box of Partake Classic Graham Crackers will contain 18 squares.

ABOUT PARTAKE FOODS

Created in 2016 by Founder and CEO Denise Woodard, when her daughter was diagnosed with multiple food allergies, Partake is a Certified B Corp that works to provide everyone the ability to partake and share in life’s joys—big and small. The Black-owned, women-led company offers delicious, allergy-friendly cookies, baking mixes and pancake & waffle mixes that are certified gluten-free, non-GMO, vegan, and free of the top 9 allergens (wheat, tree nuts, peanuts, milk, eggs, soy, fish, sesame, and shellfish). The products are made with better-for-you ingredients and offer a variety of new and nostalgic flavors that those with and without dietary restrictions can enjoy. With radical inclusivity at its core, Partake partners with non-profit organizations actively pursuing an end to food insecurity and creates career opportunities for HBCU students with their Black Futures in Food & Beverage Fellowship program. In 2022, Partake was named #45 on the Inc 5000 list. Find Partake in 11,000 stores across the US.
